RESEARCH PAPER CONFERENCE

Judicial Perspective on Mediation & the Justice System

11 October 2026 · Prayagraj

CONVENED BY

Nirmal Jyotsna Educational Society

with Legalosphere

A NATIONAL CALL FOR PAPERS

60 selected papers presented before distinguished judges and legal luminaries.

ABSTRACT DEADLINE · 6 October 2026 · 11:00 PM

Selected papers eligible for ISBN publication · Register and submit through one form

Two institutions. One shared commitment to legal learning.

EDUCATION · CULTURE · JUSTICE

Nirmal Jyotsna Educational Society

Founded on the belief that education is a right guaranteed to every citizen, the Society advances “Education for All” while celebrating India’s cultural heritage.
Its Law Lecture Series brings judges, practitioners, academicians and students into meaningful conversation on law, justice and the Constitution of India.

LEGAL LEARNING · OPPORTUNITY

Legalosphere

A government-registered Ed-tech platform supporting law students, legal aspirants and professionals through legal education, research opportunities, calls for papers, moot courts, internships and study resources.

Learning in conversation with heritage

Law Lecture Series

Knowledge of law, awareness of rights, empowerment through justice.

kala Sangeet sanskriti samagam

Musical heritage, artistic exchange and community enrichment.

Together, the conveners connect legal education with public conversation: creating space for students and emerging researchers to engage seriously with the institutions, ideas and practices shaping justice.

A MESSAGE OF WELCOME

A welcome to a more humane path to justice.

As India’s justice delivery system evolves, mediation has assumed a place of quiet but profound importance: offering an accessible, amicable and human-centred path alongside litigation.

This conference invites young scholars to examine that shift through rigorous research and fresh legal thinking. It also welcomes the judges and legal luminaries whose presence will guide the conversation and bring judicial insight into dialogue with emerging scholarship.

DR. MONAMI BASU

Patron, Nirmal Jyotsna Education Society

Dr. Monami Basu welcomes participants and acknowledges the distinguished judges and legal luminaries joining this exchange.

> “Join us as we light lamps of knowledge and keep alive the melody of our heritage.”

An invitation to think carefully about justice—and to listen across experience, scholarship and practice.

THE CONFERENCE

Where rigorous research meets judicial insight.

The organising team invites law students and young researchers from across India to study mediation as one of the defining areas of legal reform today. The conference brings original work into conversation with judicial and professional experience.

THE SELECTION

60

selected papers

Selected from submitted abstracts for presentation at the conference.

THE SETTING

Judicial and legal engagement

Presentations before a distinguished panel of Hon'ble Judges of the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and eminent legal luminaries.

What presenters can take forward

1. Present original work

   Share research in a conference-style format.

2. Engage directly

   Receive discussion with members of the judiciary and legal experts.

3. Develop a research output

   Selected papers are eligible for consideration for ISBN publication.

Conference coordinators: Aditya Raj · Avanish Kumar Chaturvedi

Mediation is becoming central to India's evolving justice delivery system.

Following the Mediation Act, 2023 and the judiciary's growing emphasis on Alternative Dispute Resolution, this conference examines how mediation can support timely, accessible and amicable justice.

Conference Sub Themes

1 ### Access to justice

Mediation as a tool for access to justice.

2 ### Judicial approach

Judicial approach to ADR under the Mediation Act, 2023.

3 ### Institutional practice

Role of courts in institutionalising mediation.

4 ### Disputes and settings

Mediation in commercial and family disputes.

5 ### Across borders

Cross-border and international commercial mediation.

6 ### Related processes

Mediation vis-à-vis arbitration and conciliation.

7 ### Technology-enabled resolution

Online and virtual mediation in technology-enabled dispute resolution.

8 ### Case pendency

Reducing case pendency through mediation.

9 ### Constitutional vision

Constitutional vision of justice and ADR.

10 ### Ethics and trust

Ethics, neutrality and confidentiality in mediation.

PARTICIPATION GUIDE

Submit a focused abstract. Join the national conversation.

Prepare a concise proposal on a conference theme. Abstracts are due 6 October 2026, 11:00 PM; selected participants will be announced by email.

ELIGIBILITY

Who can participate

- Students pursuing LL.B., B.A. LL.B. or LL.M.
- Research scholars and academicians.
- Individual authored submissions

ABSTRACT SPECIFICATION

What to submit

- 300–500 words and 4–5 keywords.
- Times New Roman, 12 pt, 1.5 line spacing, A4 format.
- Bluebook Citation
- Include author name(s), institutional affiliation, contact number and email ID.
- Shortlisted participants must submit the full paper before the conference.

PAPER SPECIFICATION

What to submit

- 5000–6000 words and 4–5 keywords.
- Times New Roman, 12 pt, 1.5 line spacing, A4 format.
- Bluebook Citation
- Shortlisted participants for publication must submit the full paper with an undertaking of uniqueness of their work, after on sheduled time after the confrence.

Dates and recognition

Milestone	Details
Abstract submission	6 October 2026 · 11:00 PM
Selected participants	Announced by email
Conference and presentations	11 October 2026

Selected and best-rated papers will be considered for an edited conference volume bearing an ISBN.

Certificates will be provided to shortlisted presenters.

A Best Paper Award will be conferred on the recommendation of the judging panel.

NEXT STEP · PRAYAGRAJ · 11 OCTOBER 2026

Register. Submit your abstract. Be part of the dialogue.

Use one form for registration and abstract submission.

REGISTRATION FORM

docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScrbW40ZJZxb9f_lSMguQ5hU8aW8JtgyCFNMSB7keyY4jFVzA/viewform

Abstract deadline: 6 October 2026, 11:00 PM

How to Submit

Abstracts & Paper must be emailed to editor.njes@gmail.com with the subject line: "Abstract Submission – Judicial Perspective on Mediation and the Justice System."

Contact

Aditya Raj · Avanish Kumar Chaturvedi
editor.njes@gmail.com
7906937131, 9695951356
Venue:- Nirmal Jyotsna Education Society
10 Kutchehry Road, Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh

Come to Prayagraj this October with a question, a paper and a willingness to listen.

Registration fees

Rs. 249/- only

Registration Fee: ₹250 per participant, payable via the QR code above.

Please attach the payment screenshot and transaction details along with your abstract while submitting to editor.njes@gmail.com.

Scan to pay